

INSTALLATION OF CENT OS ON VMWARE

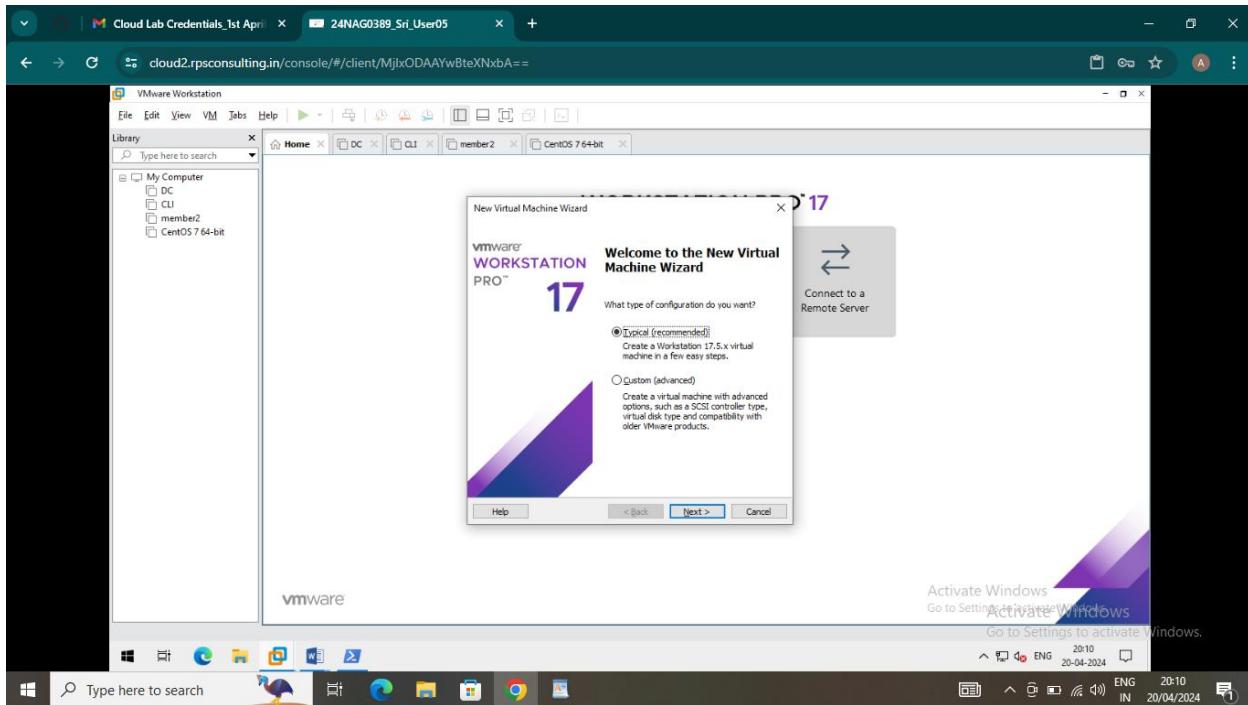

Run VMware Workstation

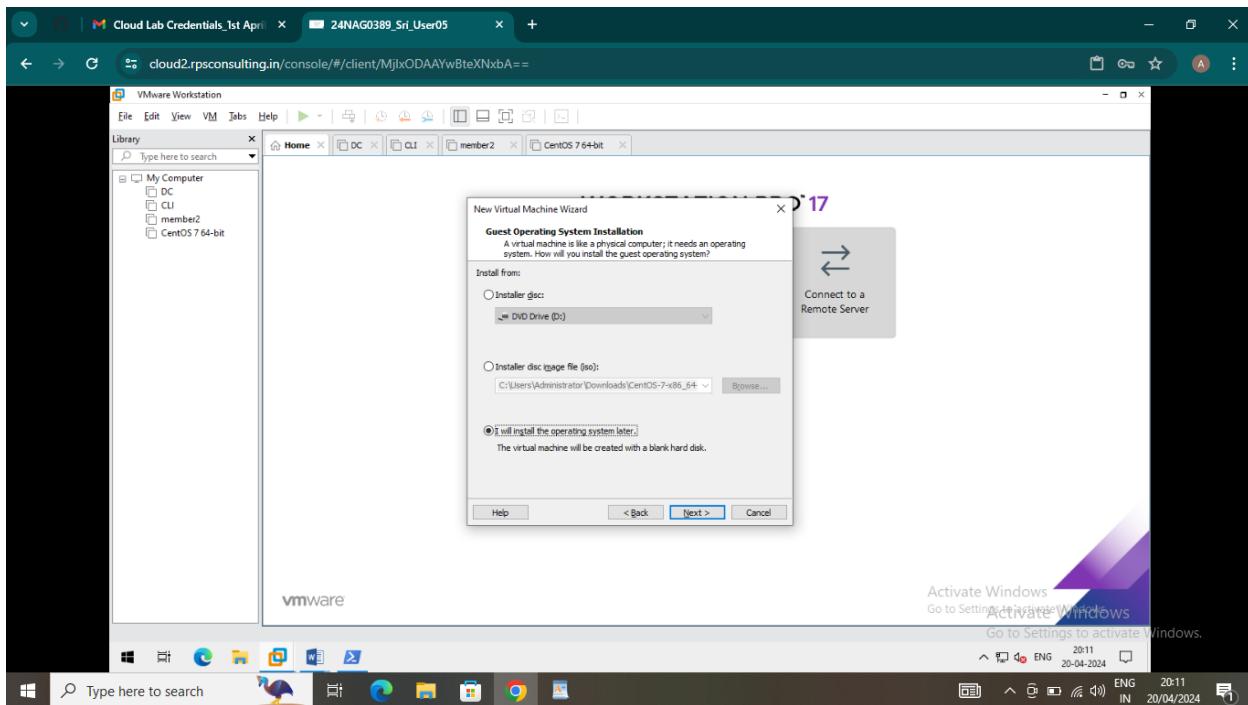

On home tab of VMware workstation click on create new virtual machine

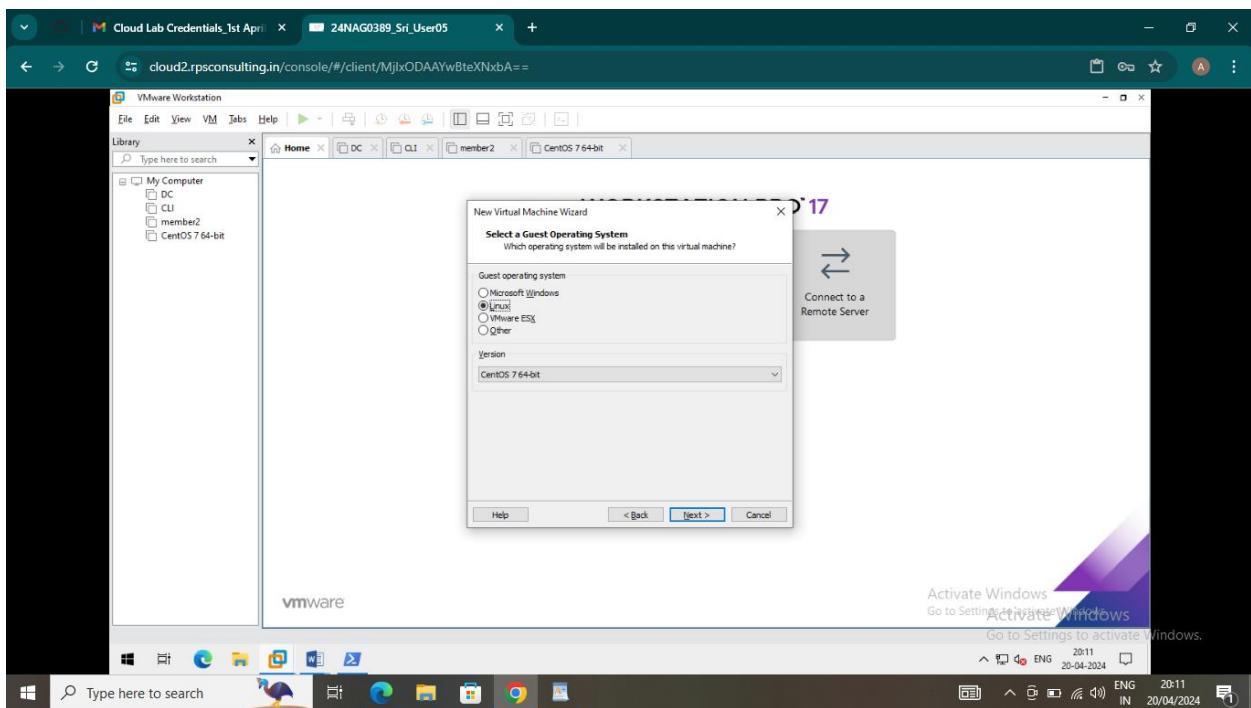

On welcome wizard , click on Typical and then click next

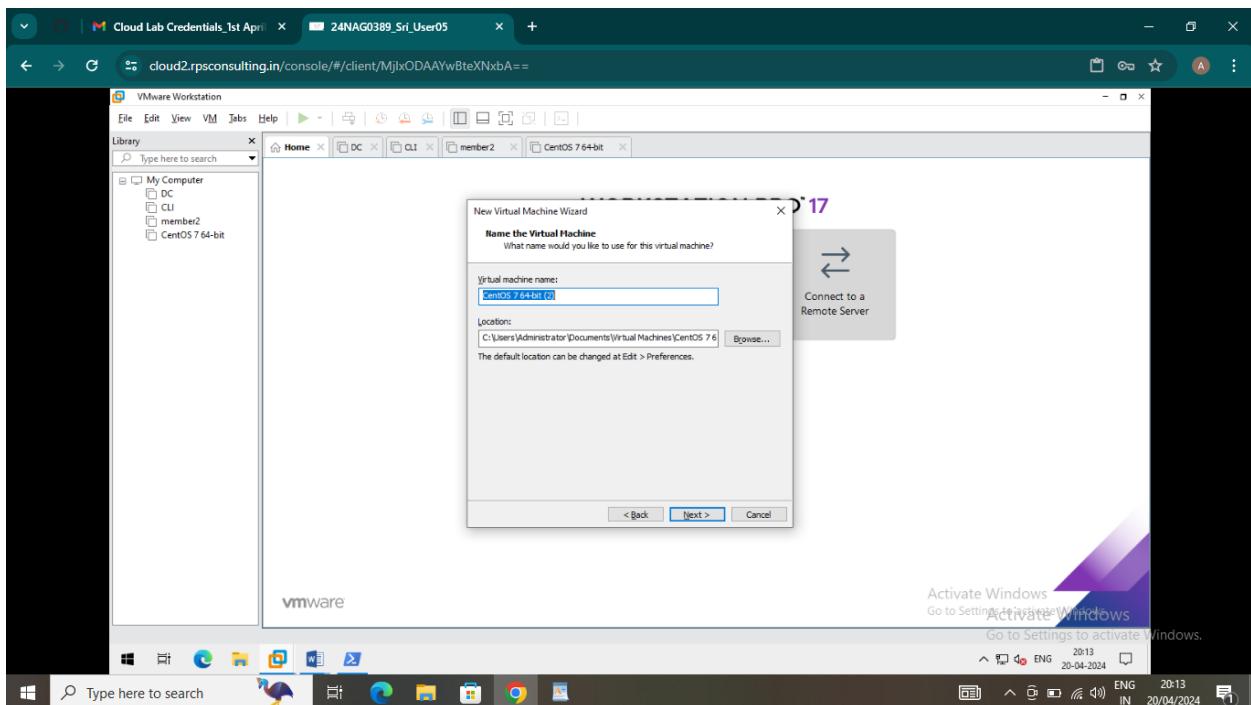

As we install the OS later click on this option & click next

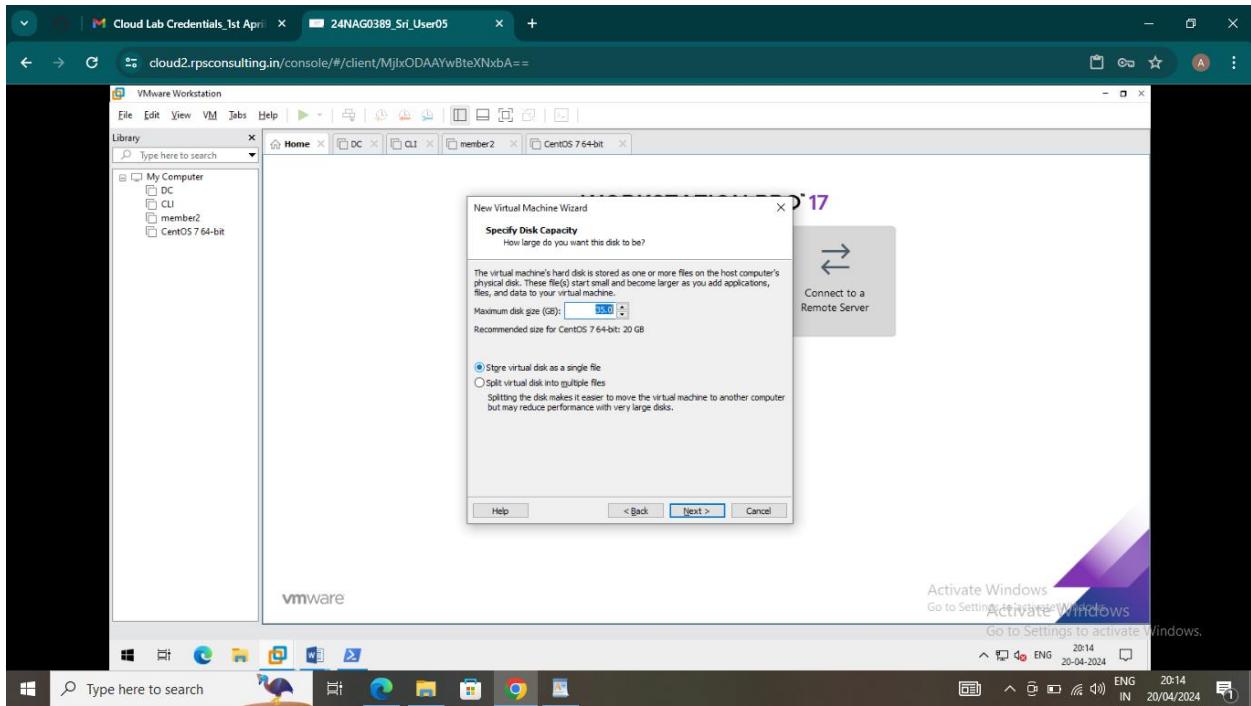

Choose the Linux as guest OS & select the version Cent OS 7 64bit & click next

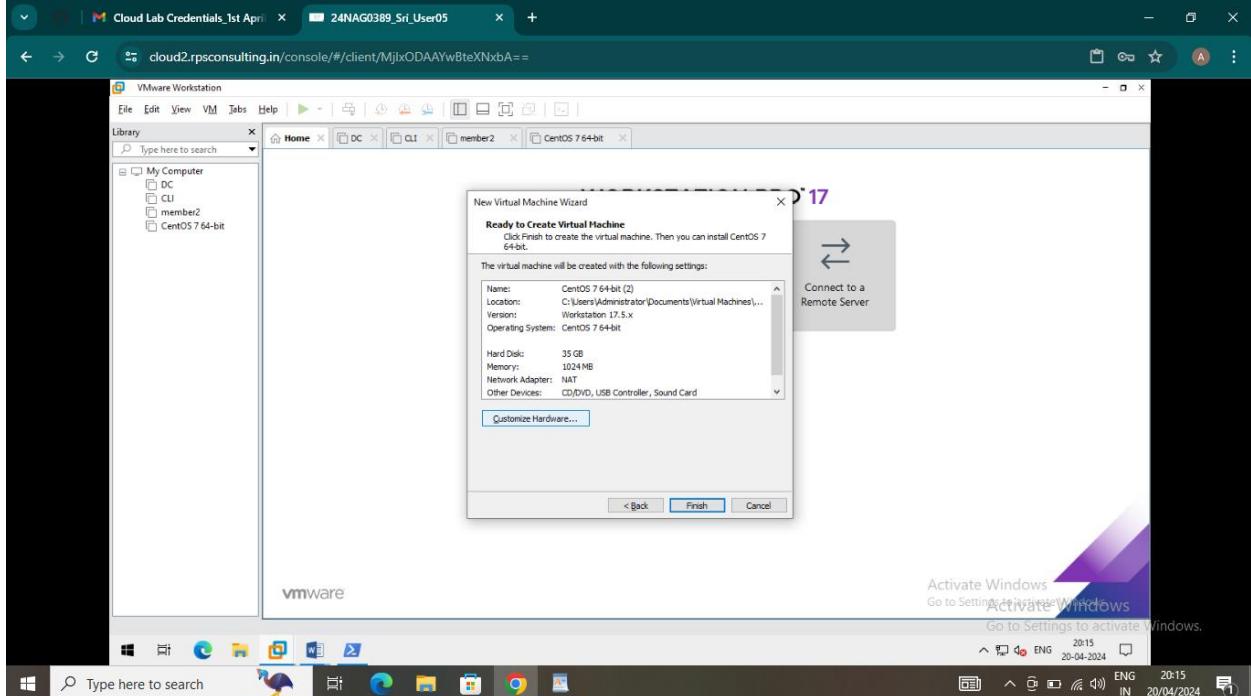

Click on next

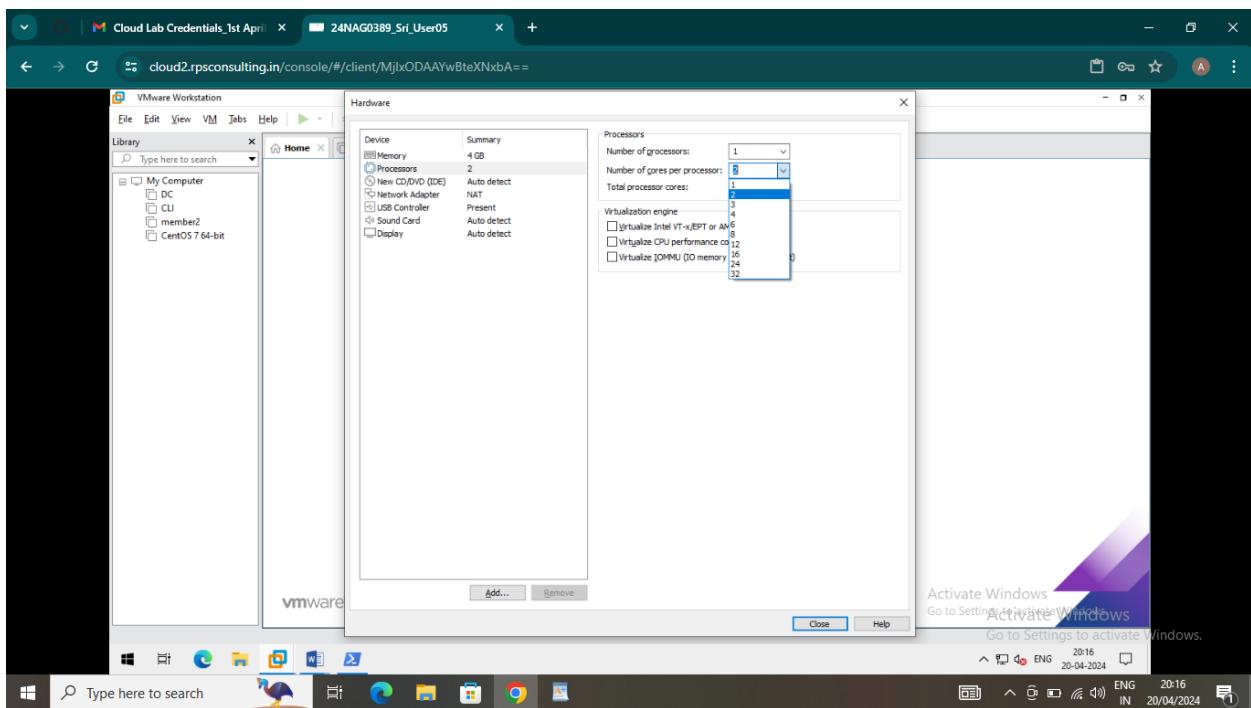

Enter the maximum Disk size you want & click next

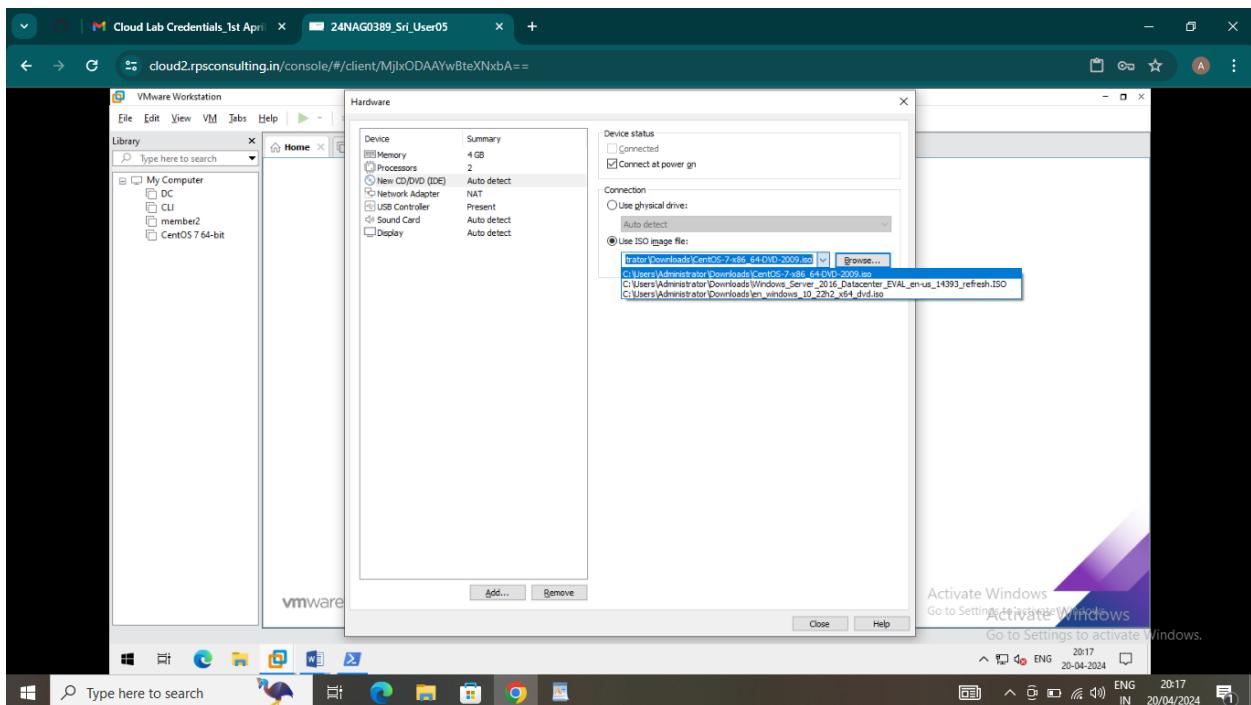

To customize the Hardware click here

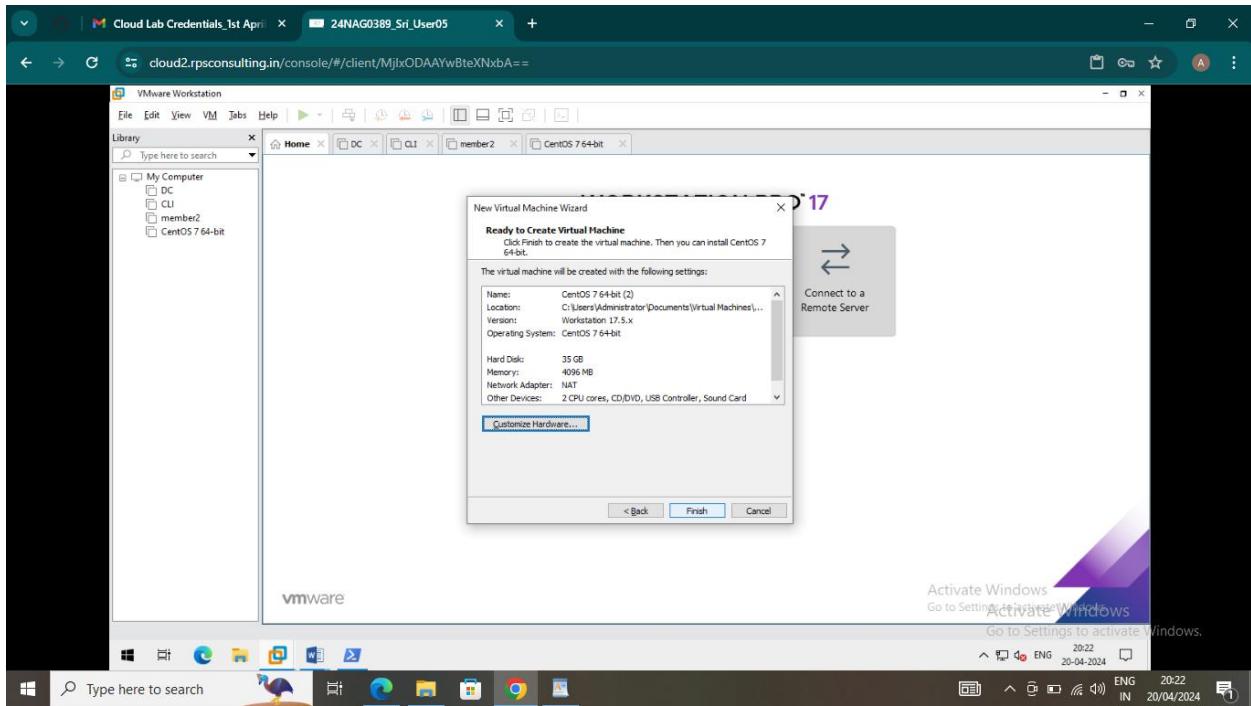

Select the number of processors you need for your VM

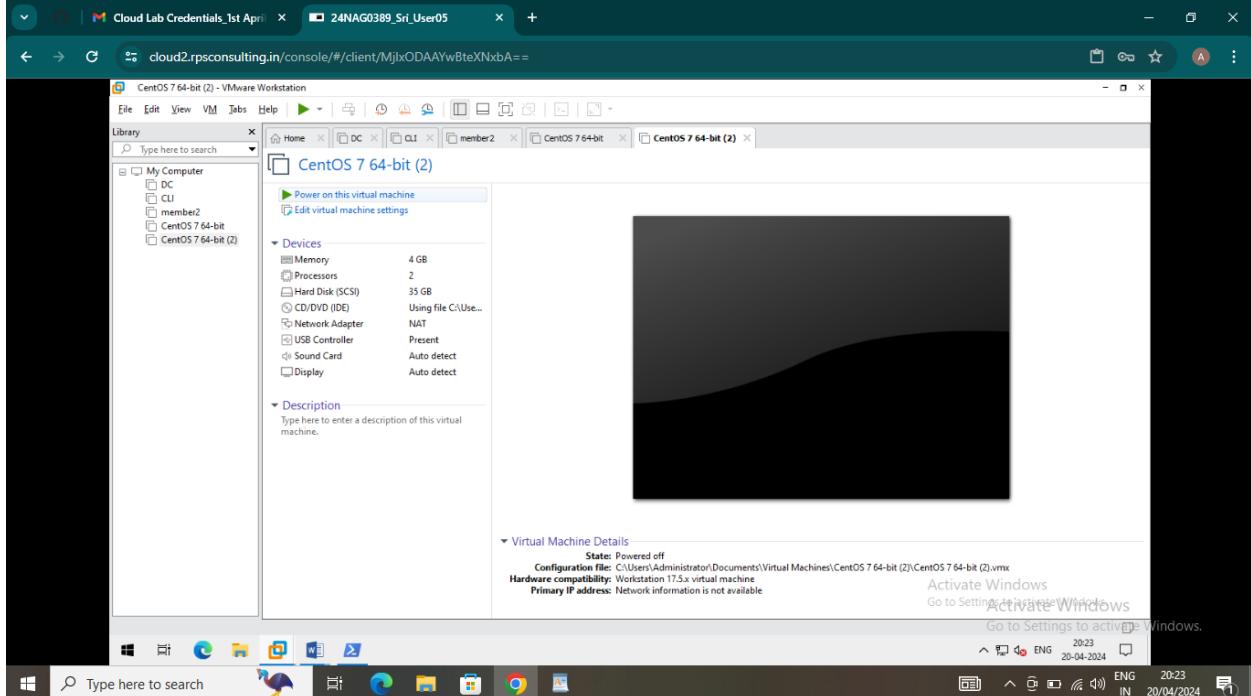

Choose the ISO image file & click on browse

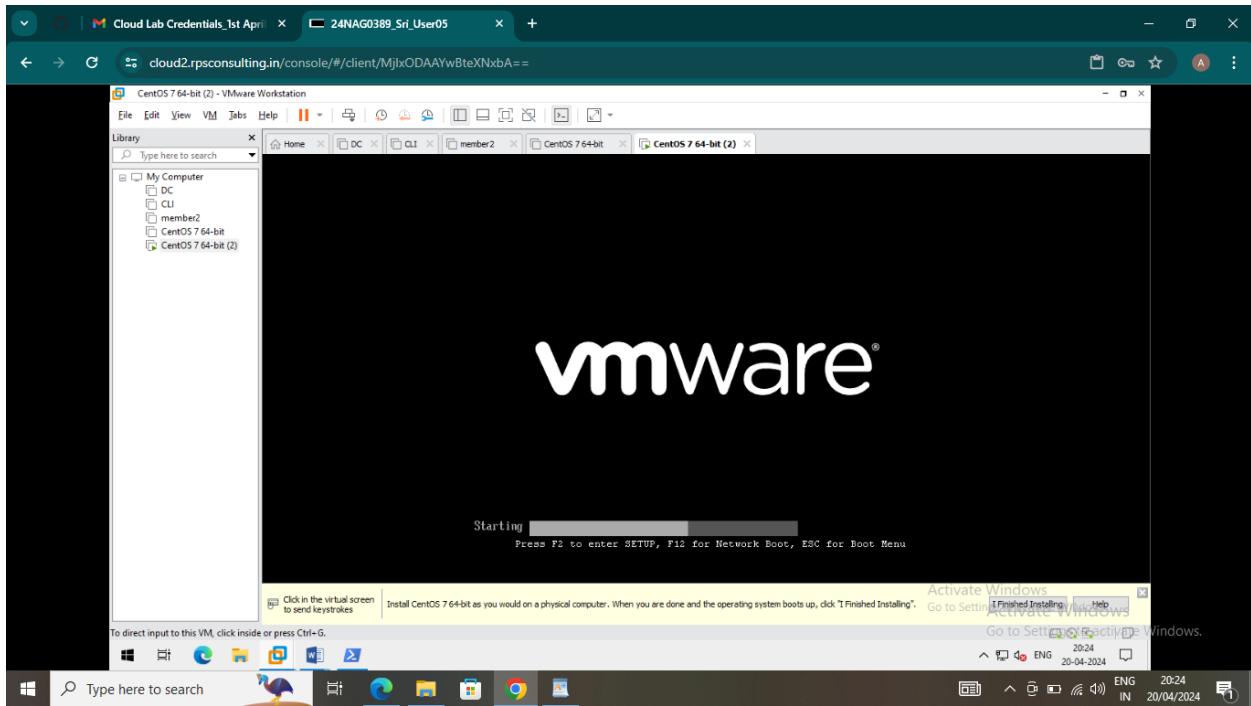

After customizing click Finish

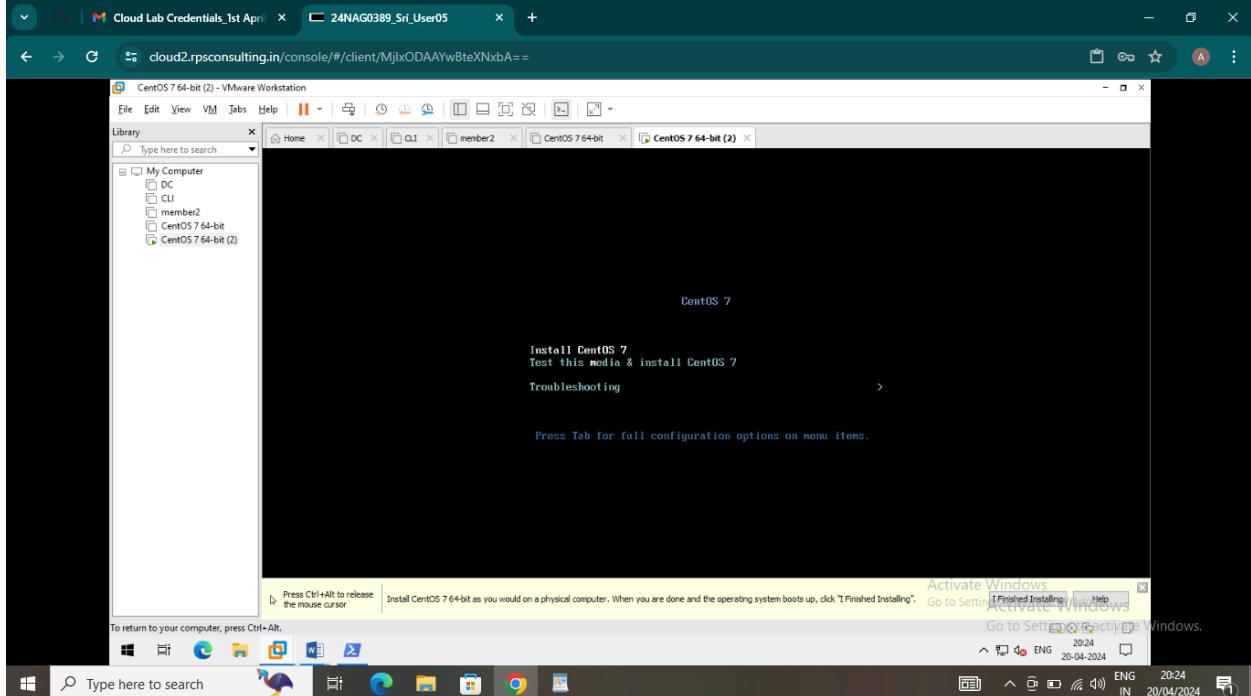

VM is created now Power On the VM

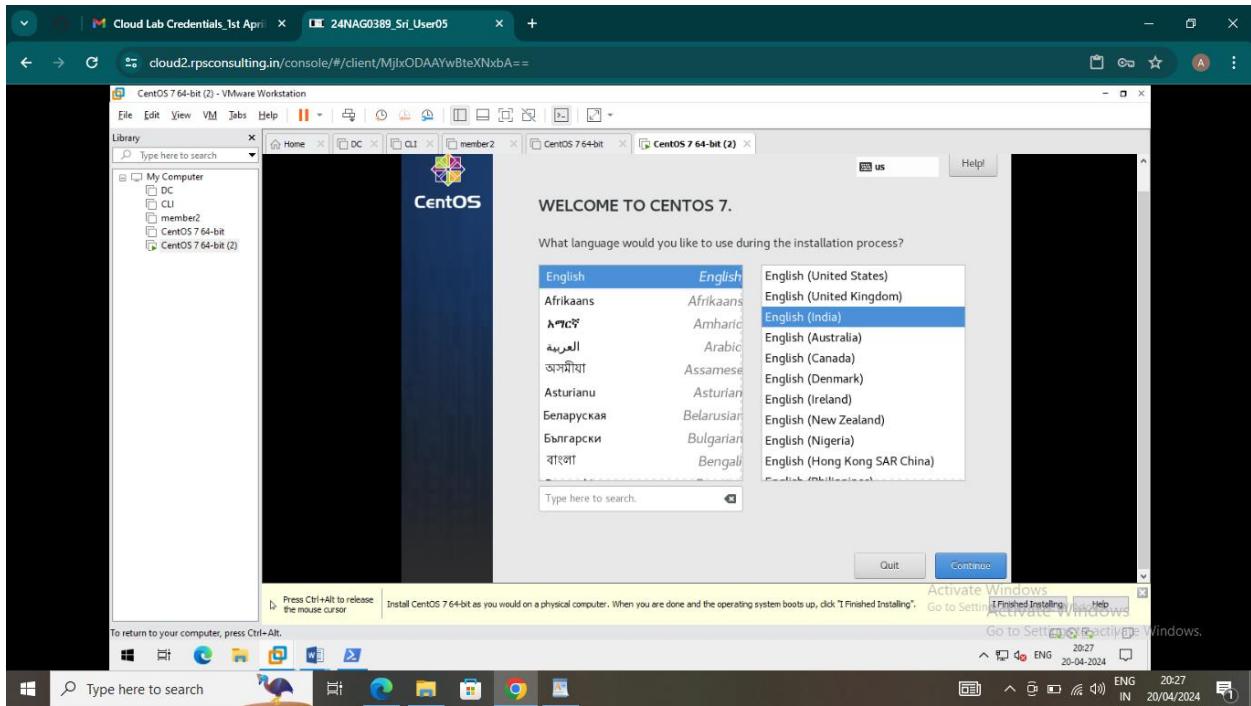

VM is starting

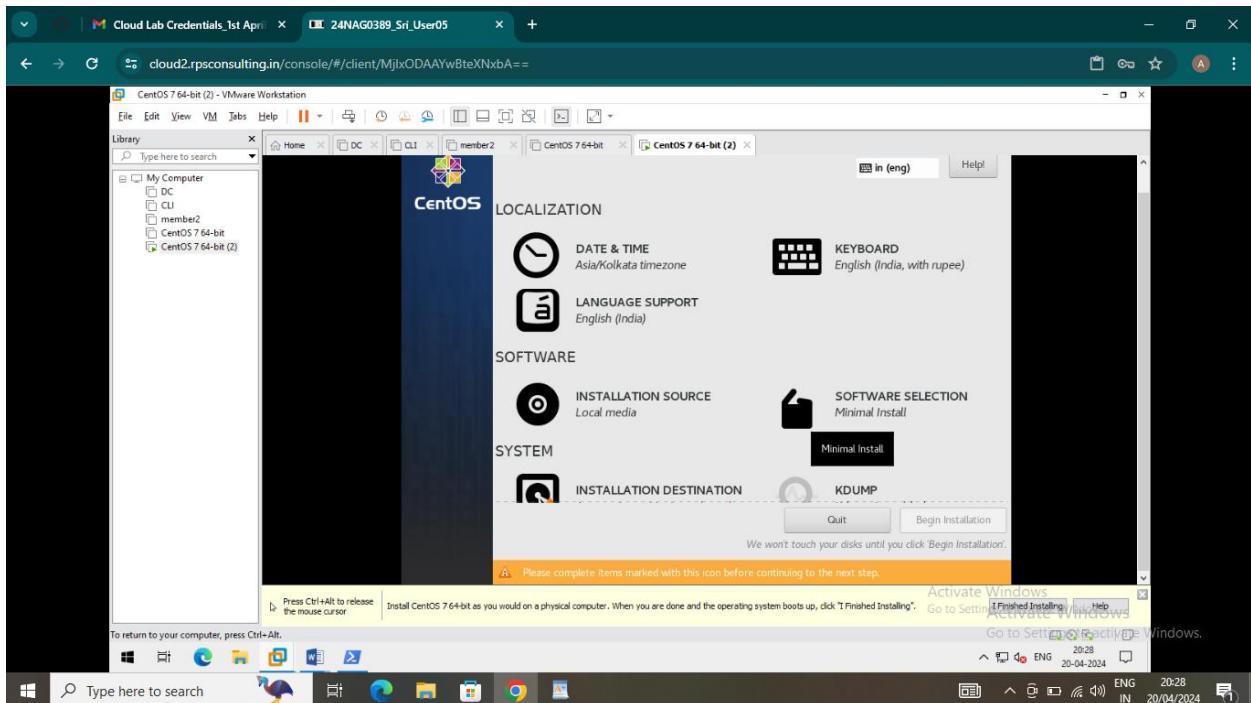

Select the option “Install CentOS 7” & press enter

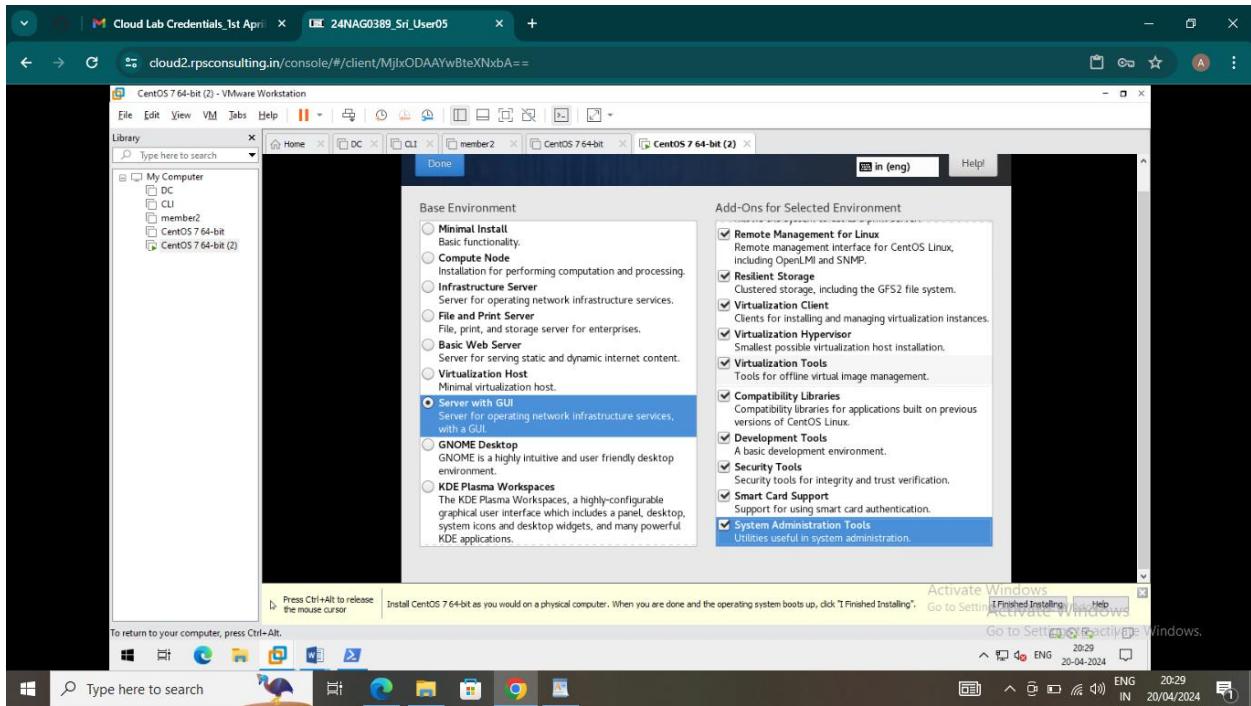

Select the language and click on continue

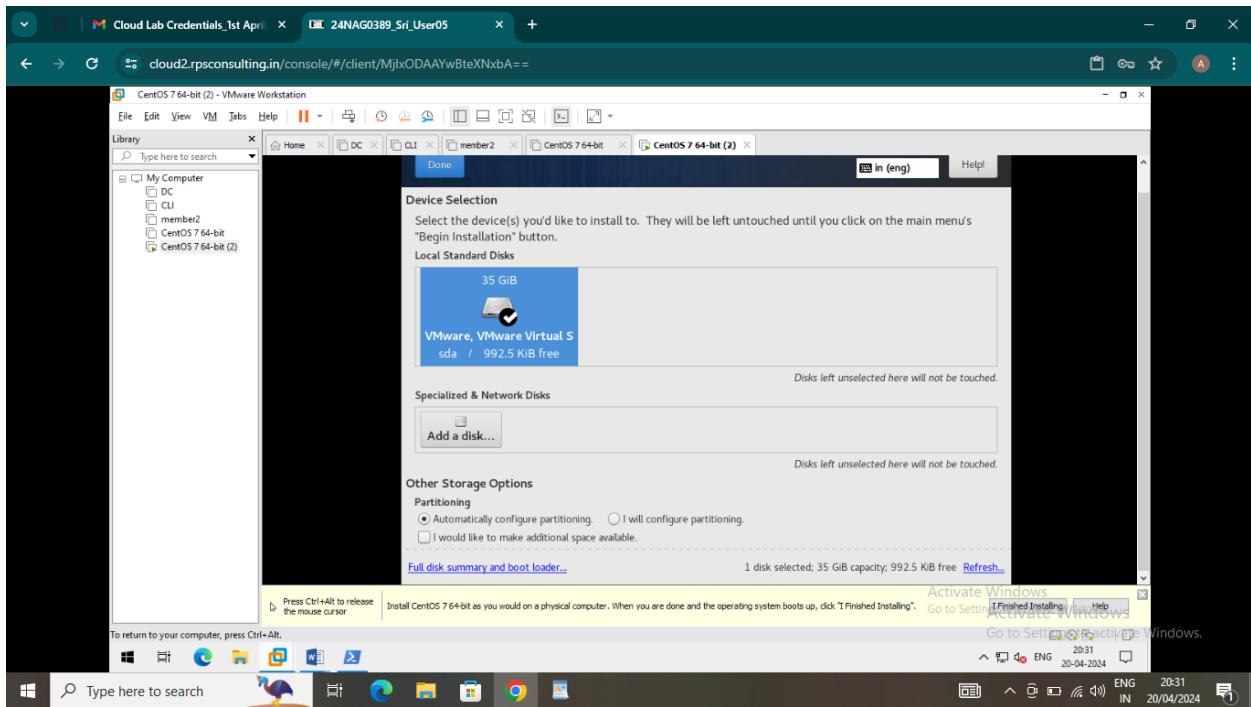

Click on Software Selection

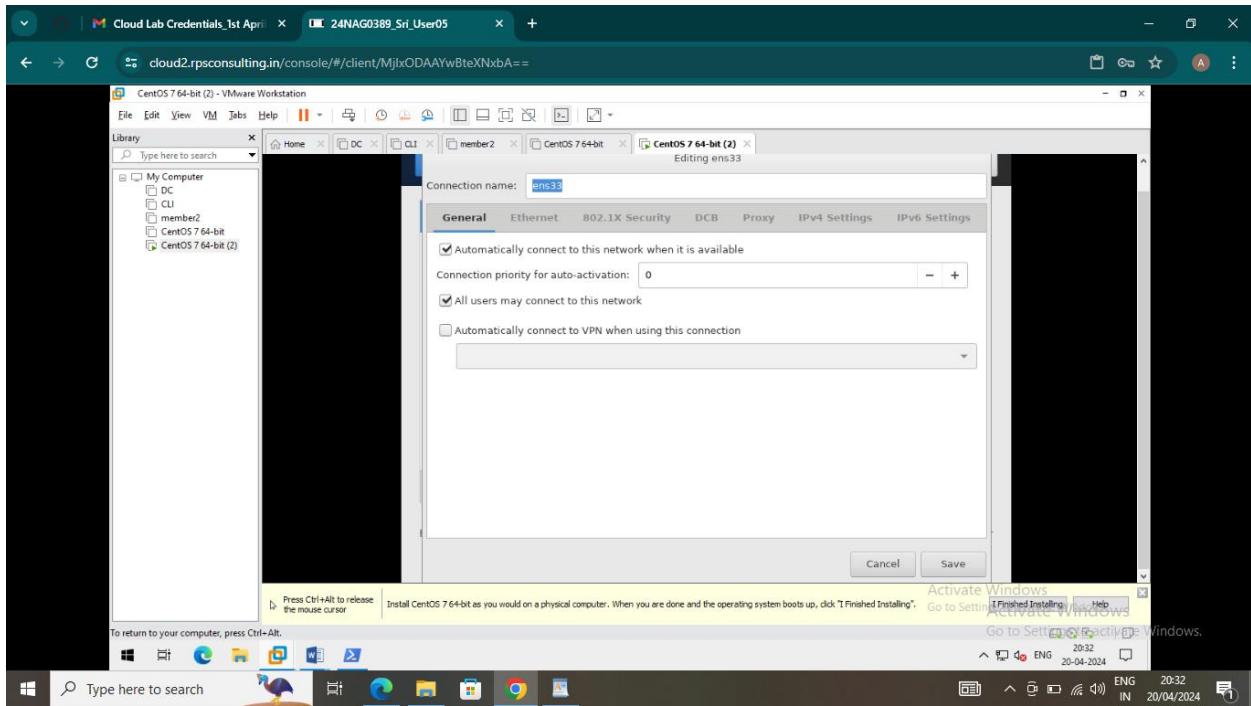

Select the “Server with GUI” as Base Environment & check all the boxes in “Add-Ons for Selected Environment” & click on Done

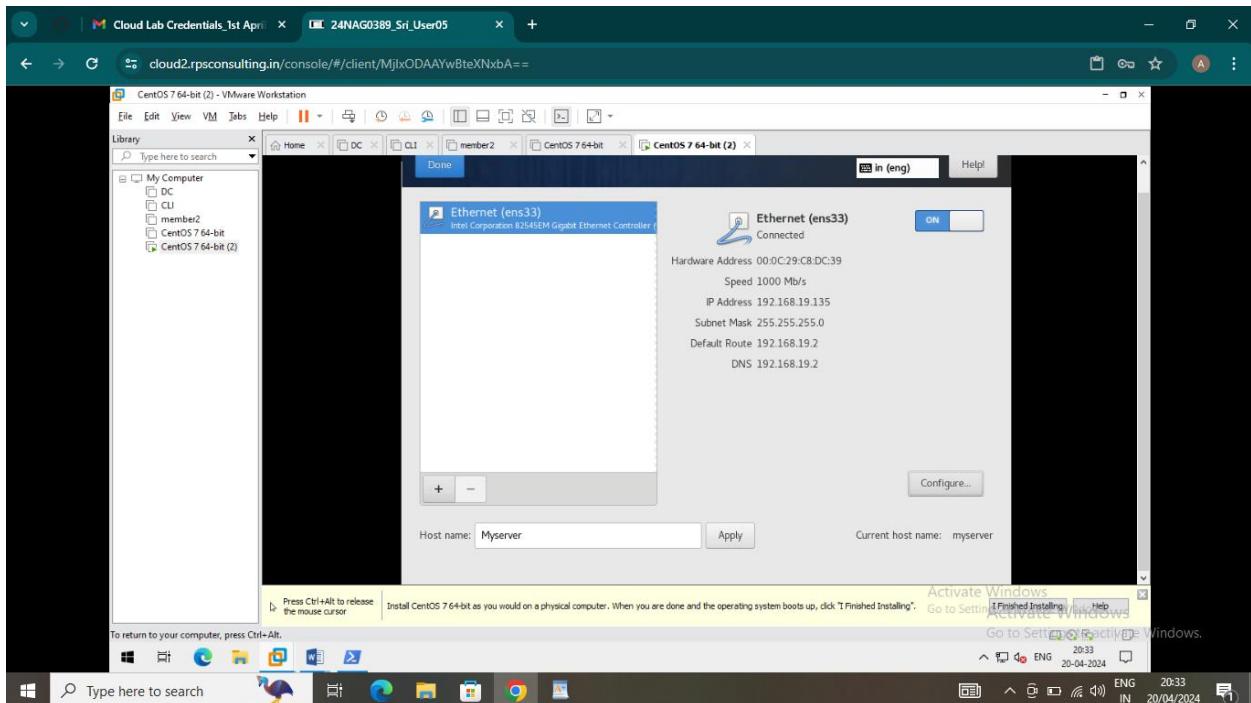

Click on Installation Destination and click twice on Local Standard disk & click done

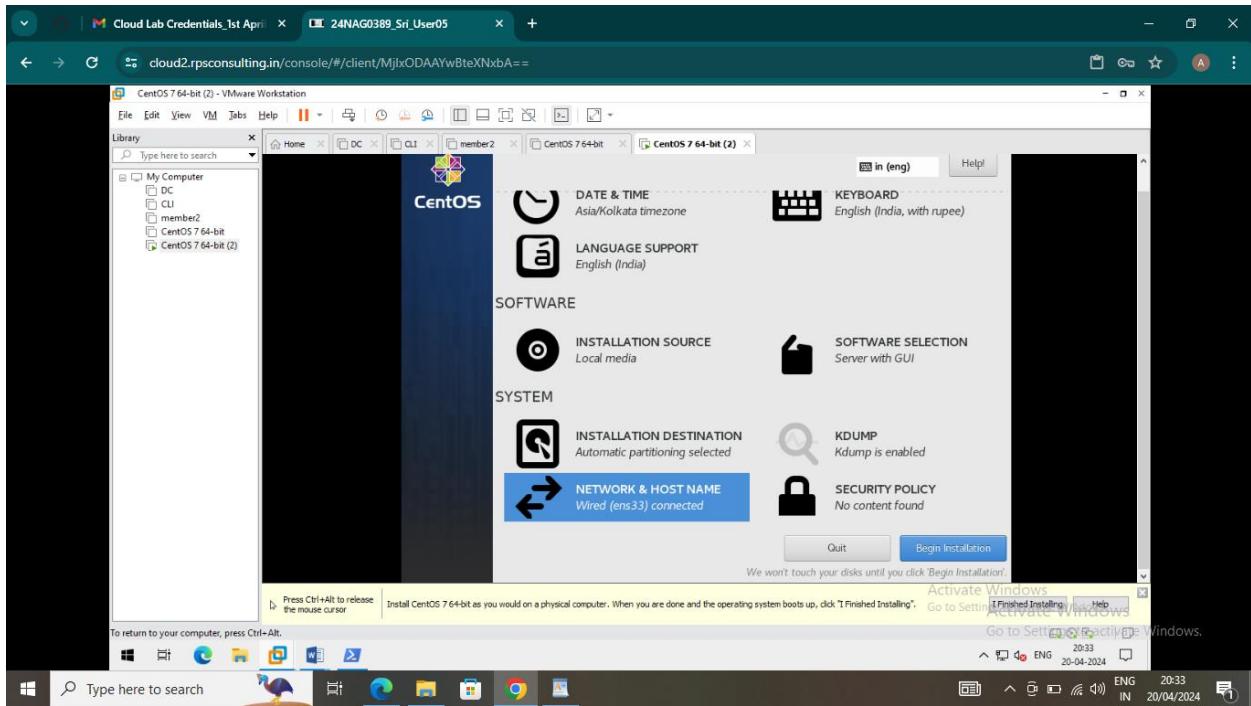

Click on Network & Host name, click General , check the box and select save

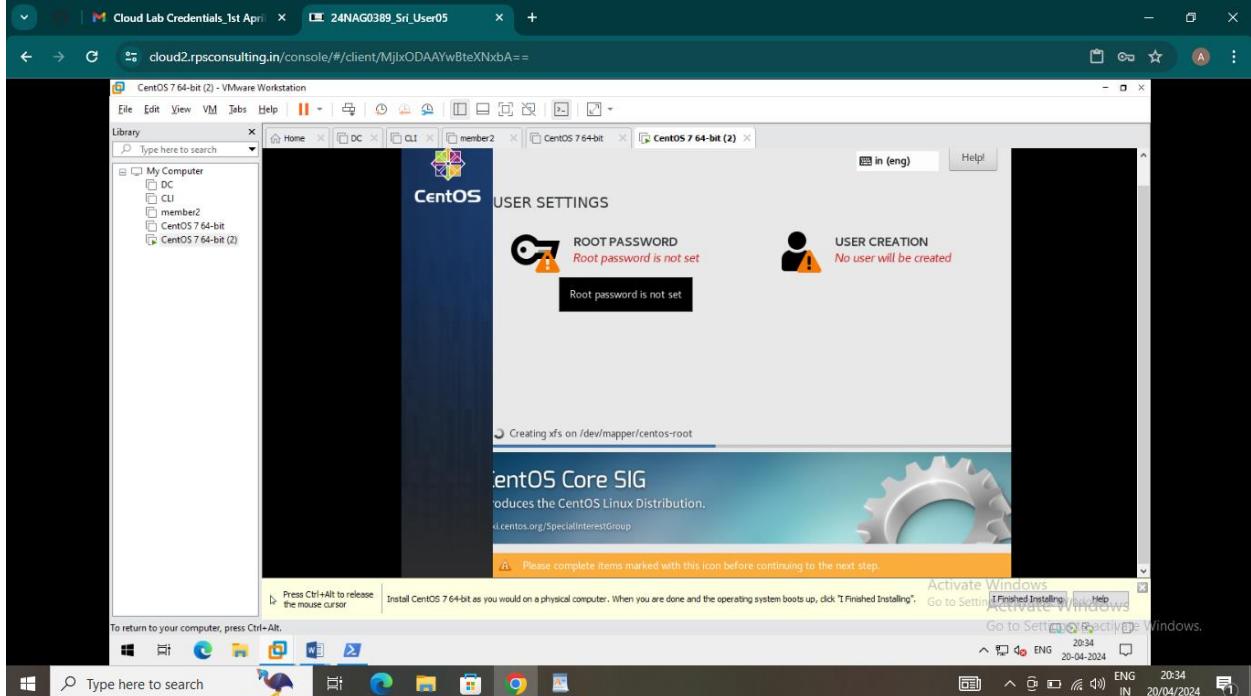

Name your Host , click on Apply & click on Configure

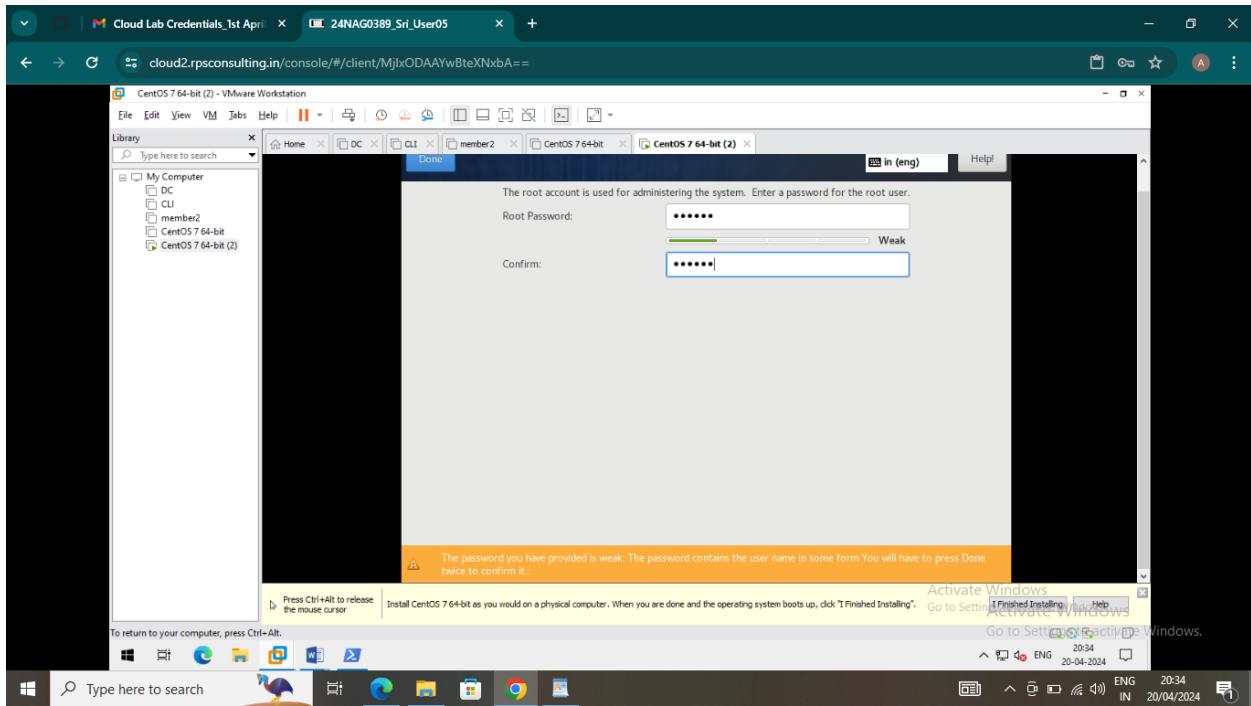

Click to Begin the Installation

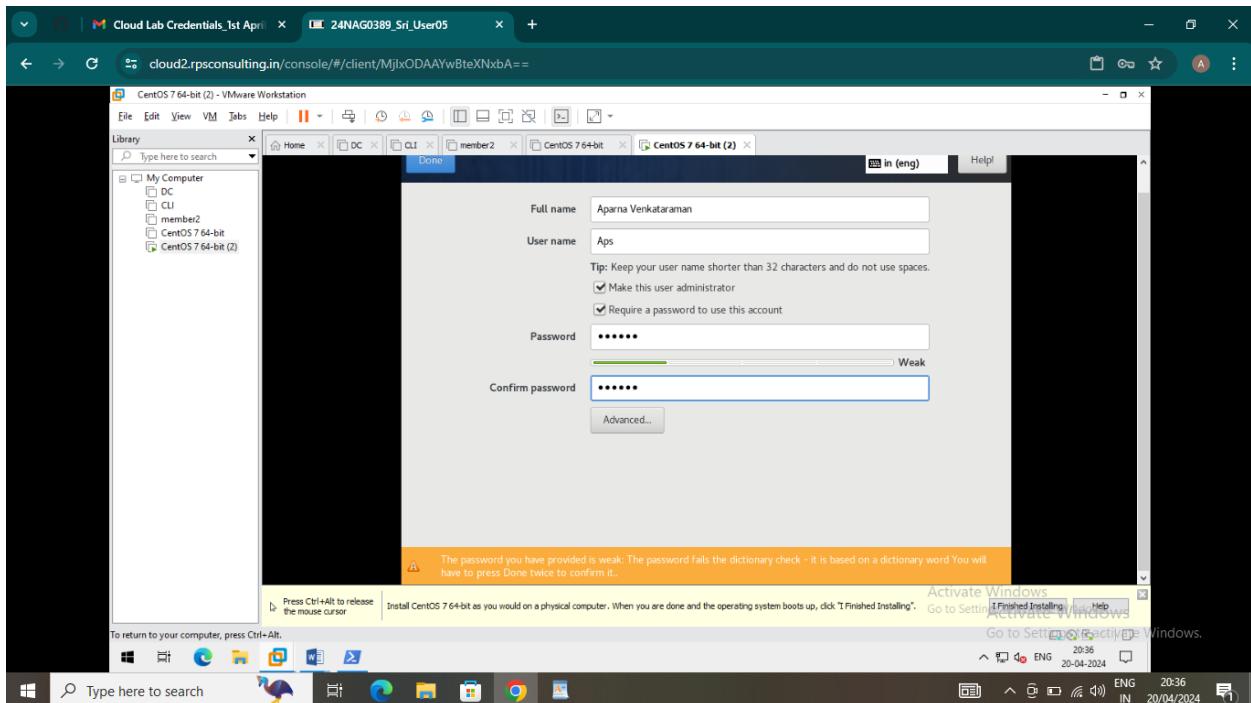

Click here to set your ROOT Password

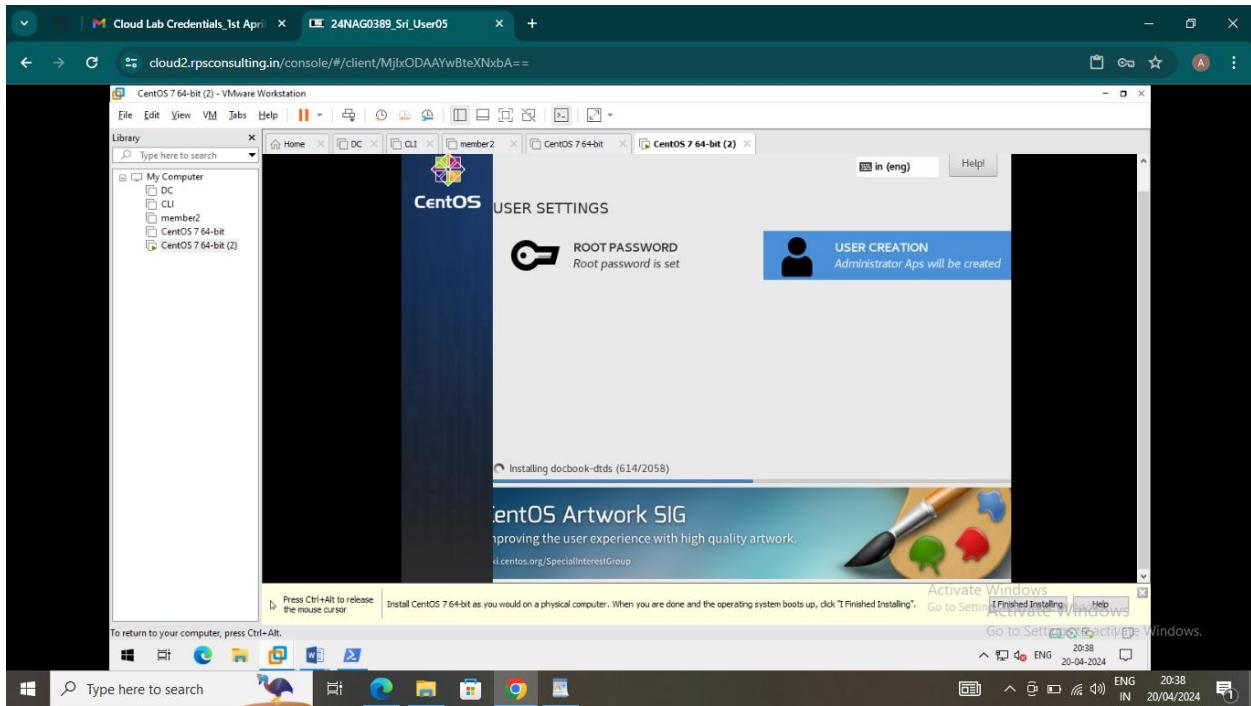

Enter the password & click on Done

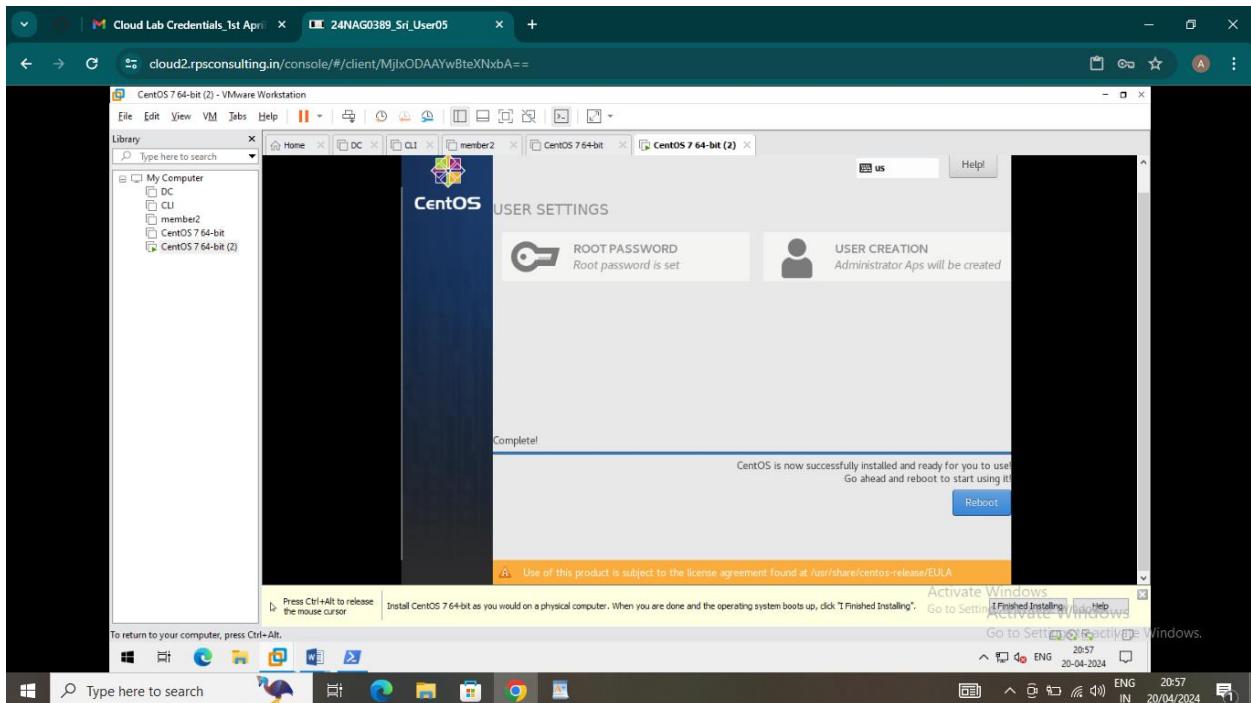

Click User Creation and enter the required & Click on Done

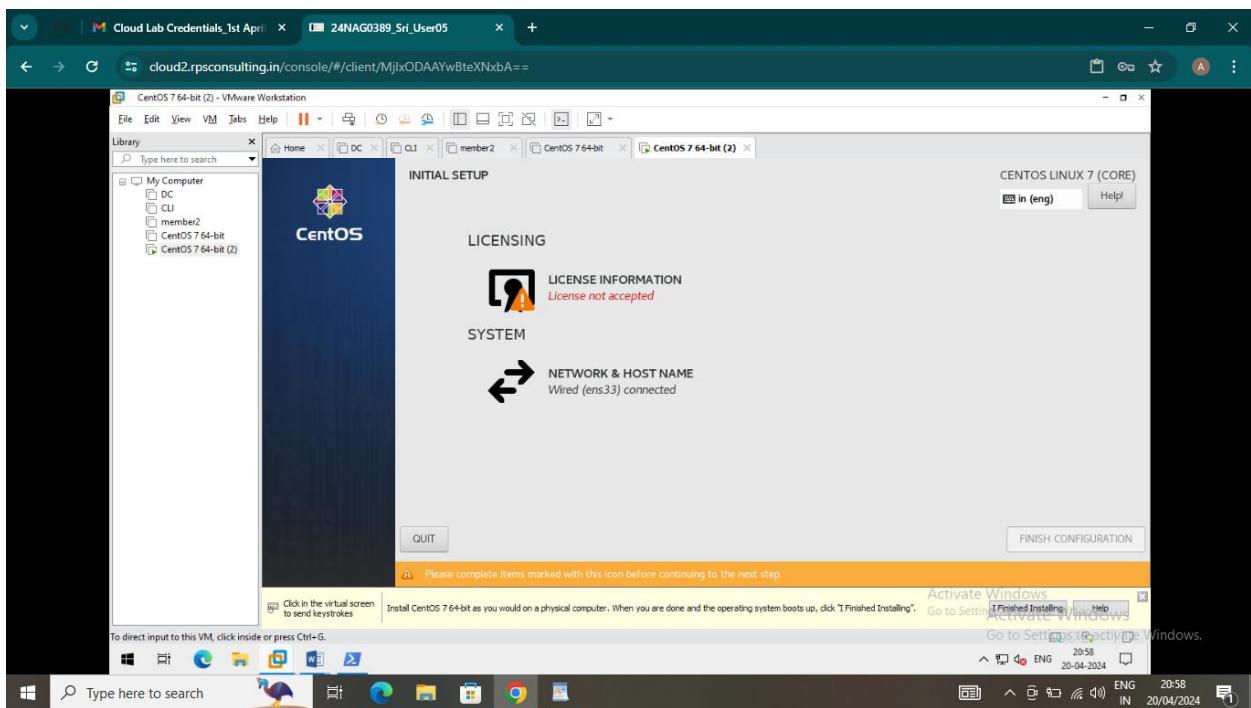

Wait until the Installation completes

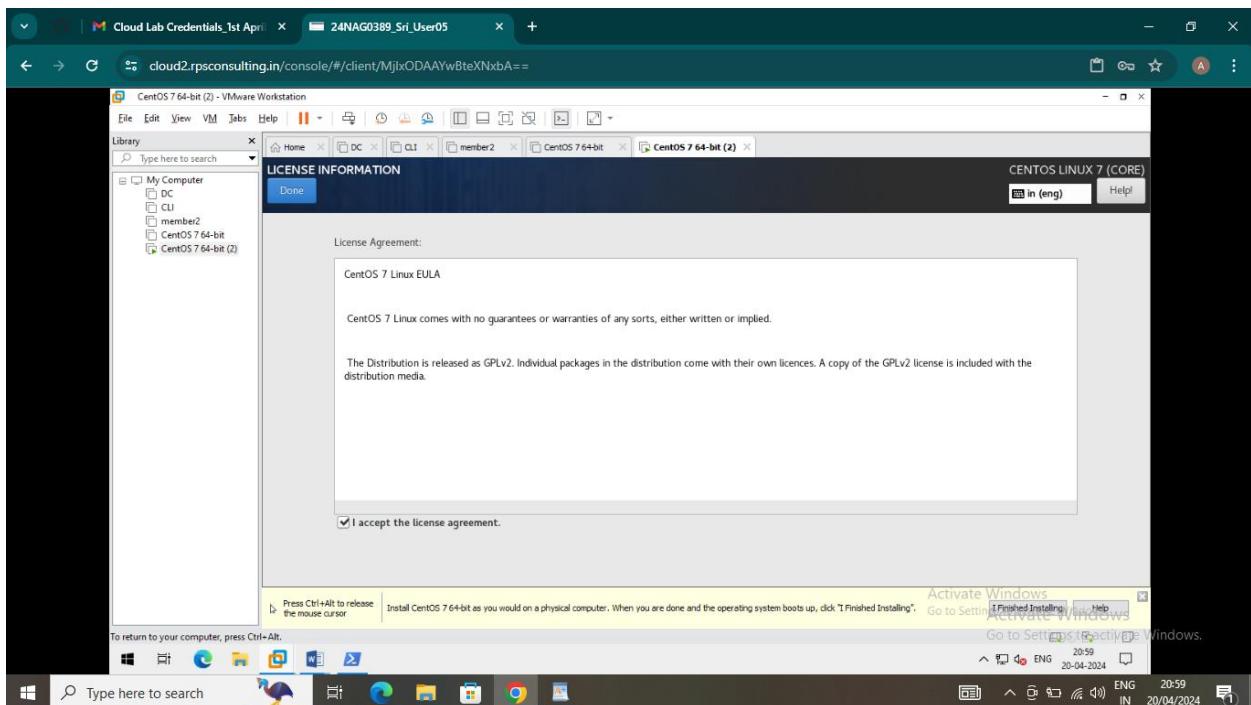

Reboot the system after Installation

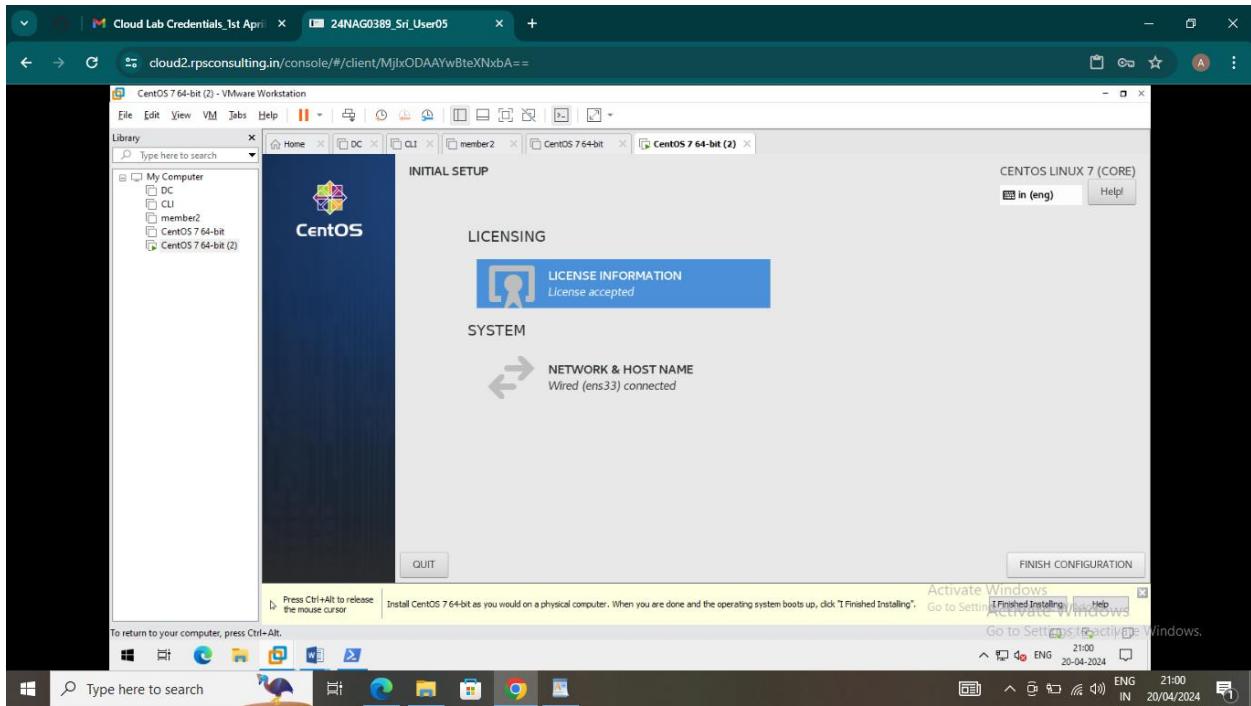

Click on the License Information to read the License

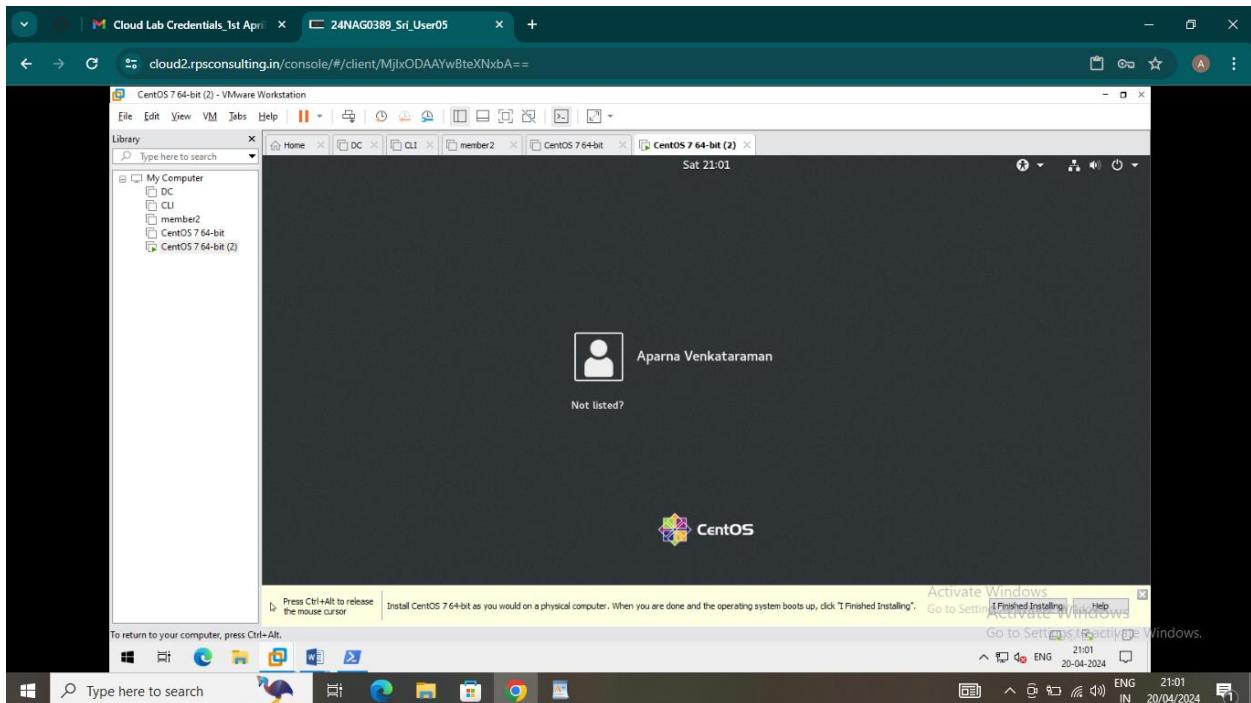

Accept the License agreement & Click on Done

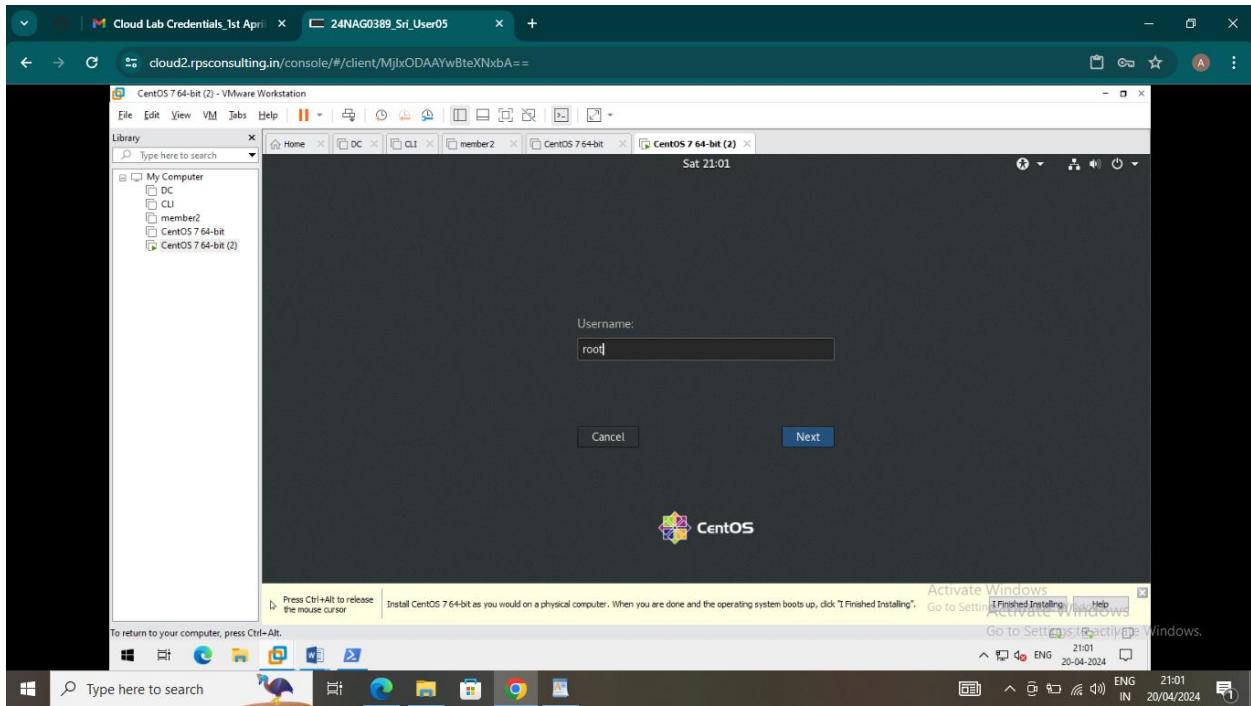

Click “Finish the Configuration”

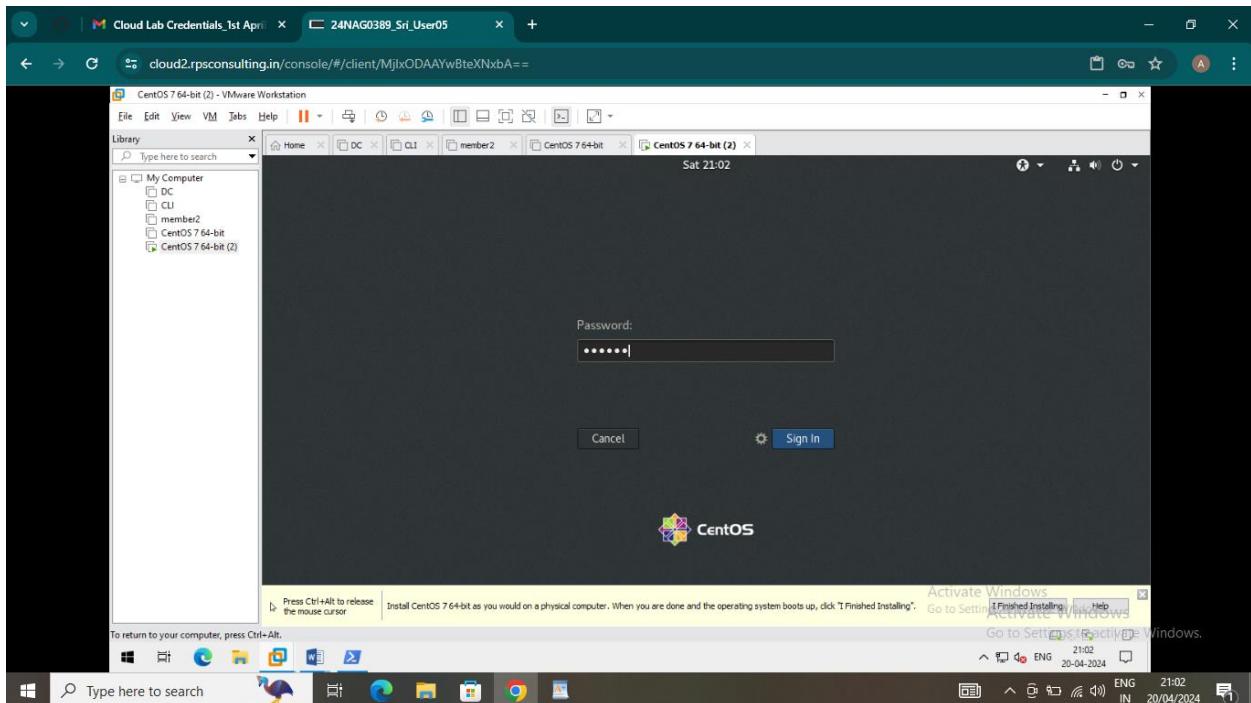

To enter as a Root User click on to “Not listed”

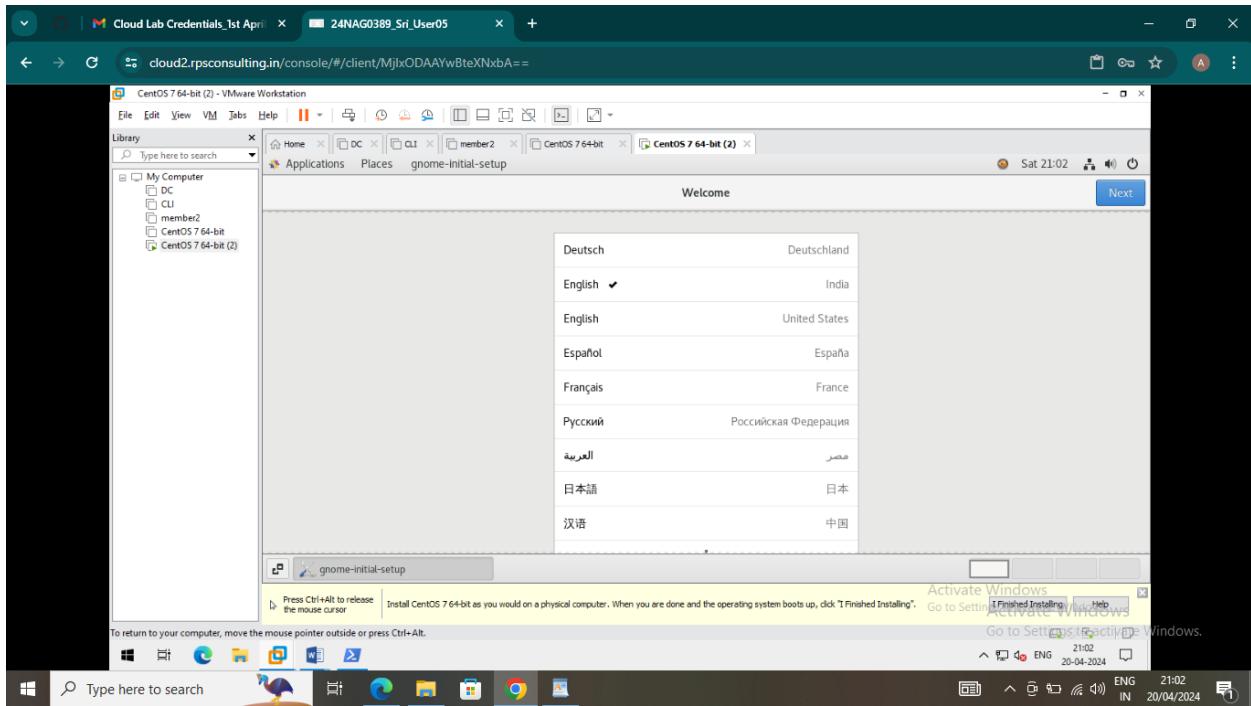

Enter the user name as “root”

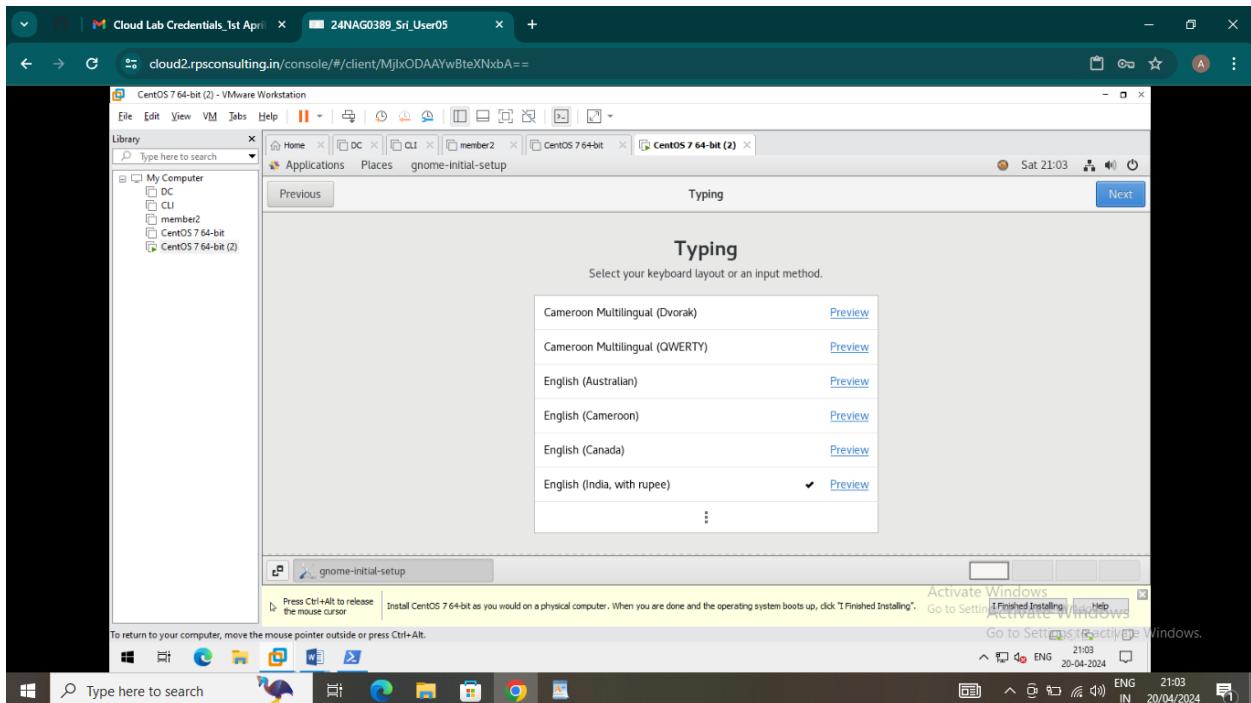

Enter the password

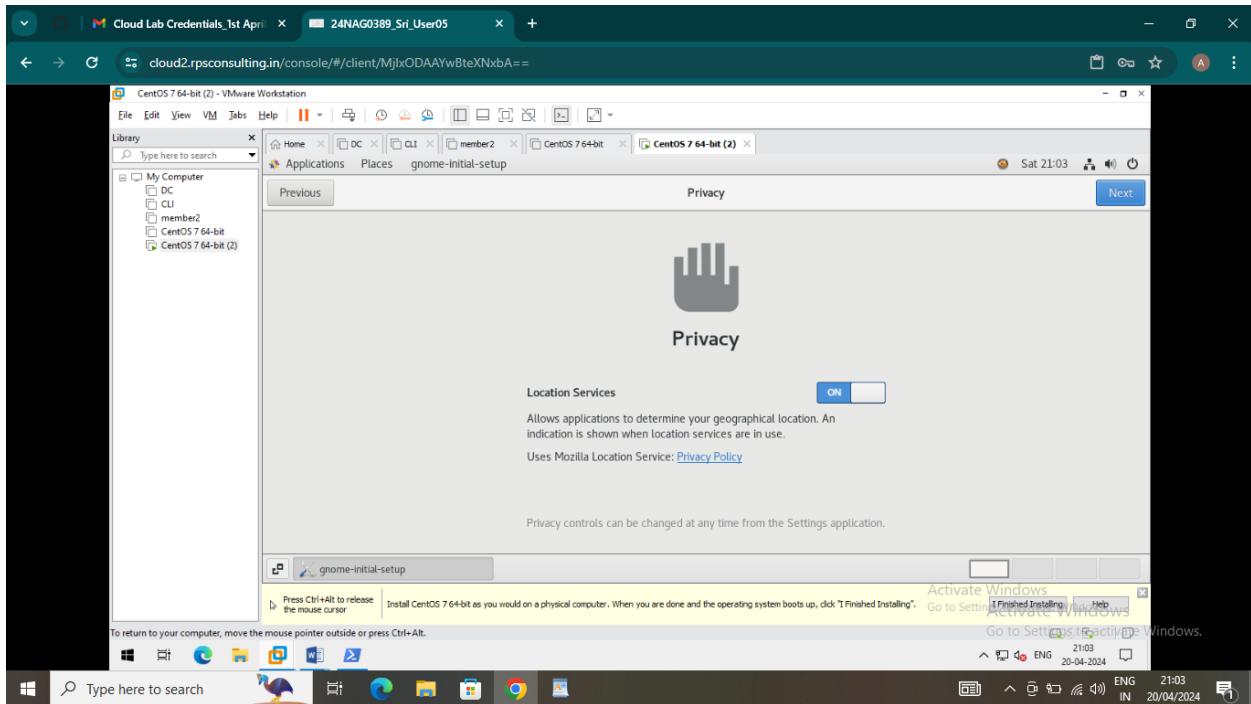

Click on Next

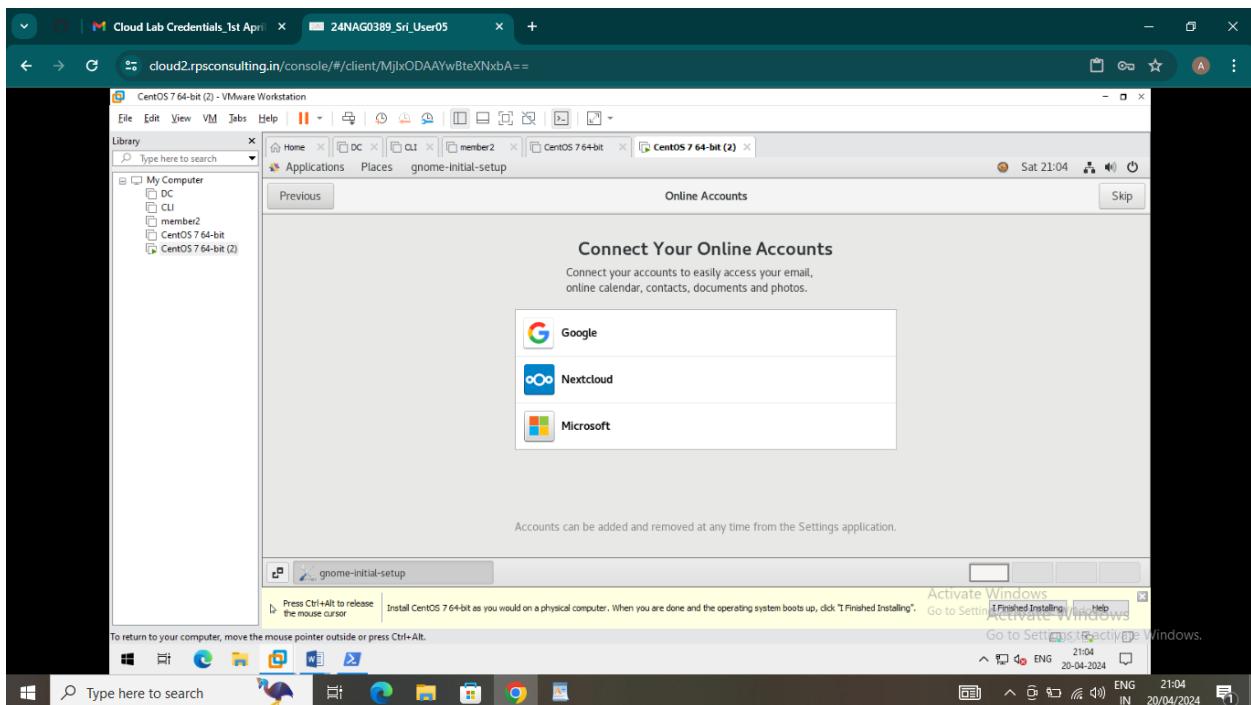

Click on Next

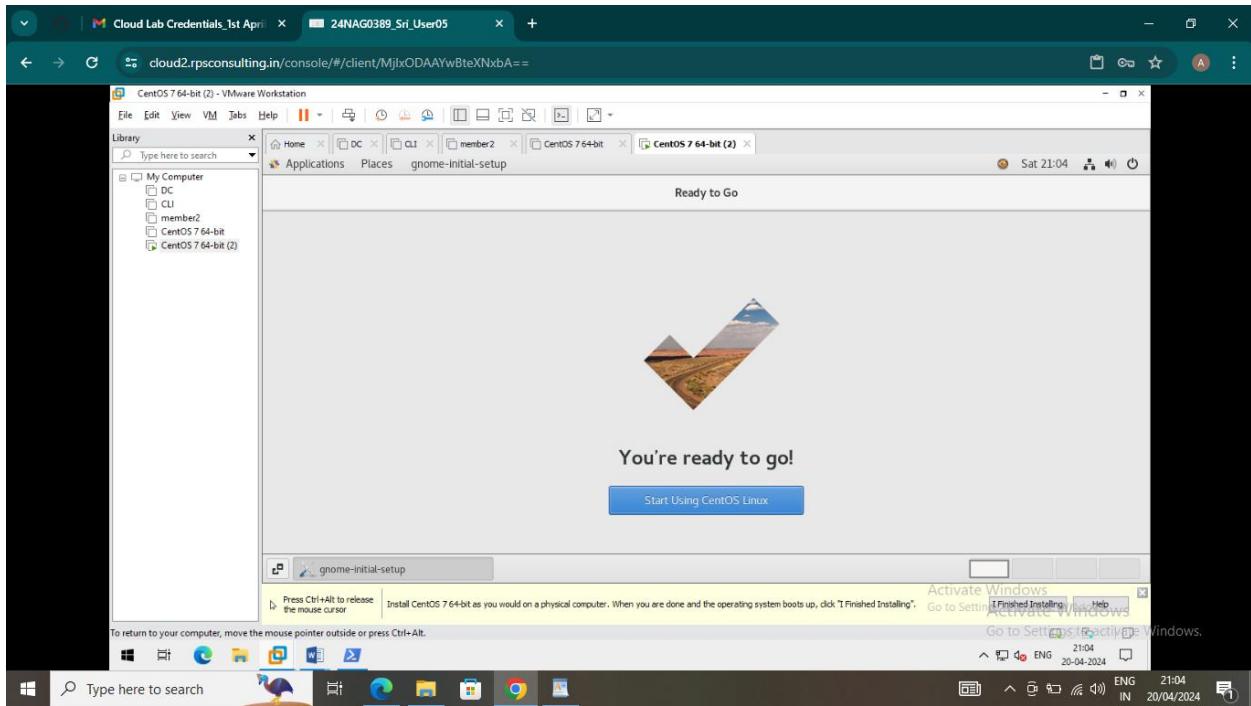

Click on next

Skip this part

Click on “Start using CentOS Linux”

CentOS Linux is installed & ready to Use.

